

FTP problem with Windows CE target

When the file copied from Windows CE target using FTP does not reflect the changes in the contents of the file, the problem can be solved by the following way. On the host computer, try to open the file by clicking the right mouse button and close it before copying the file to the host.

